RiversideRhythmSwingBand is a powerhouse nineteen piece big band located in the Poconos that has been entertaining audiences throughout northeast Pennsylvania since 2007. It is comprised of talented local professional and accomplished musicians who span the generations, blending traditional Big Band instrumentation of rhythm, brass and woodwinds.

Riverside Rhythm's extensive repertoire features the music of the swing Era with tunes from the 1920's through the 1940's from favorites like Glenn Miller, Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Les Brown. The vocalists bring the 1950's and 60's to life as well with the famous sounds of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Bobby Darin and Patsy Cline. More traditional music can be heard in the Latin and ballroom selections featuring the Fox Trot, Tango, Cha Cha and Waltz. Also performing contemporary hits by Michael Buble, Riverside spans the generation of the Big Band sounds and all the big band favorites as well.
